

Ticket Purchasing

During Games-time, available tickets can be purchased through www.vancouver2010.com or at any of the following locations:

- CoSport, the USOC's official ticketing agent, will have an on-site office starting in February 2010. Office hours and location will be available at www.cosport.com in January 2010. CoSport, an affiliate company of Jet Set Sports, is the official ticketing agent for the USOC and is the only licensed ticket seller in the United States.

CoSport will have a first come, first serve phase in mid-September 2009. If more tickets become available after that, they will not be released until right before or during the Games. For ticket purchasing inquiries through CoSport, please contact:

There will be quantity limitations for individual session tickets. There is a limit on the number of tickets that can be purchased per individual person (Account Holder) of forty-eight (48) tickets in total. If a spectator has placed a previous ticket order or ticket request, he/she may complete another ticket order as long as the total number of tickets combined in all of the ticket orders/requests under one Account Holder does not exceed the quantity limitations indicated above. Tickets will not be printed until two months prior to the Games.

Shipping: This is an optional service which must be selected at time of check out for an extra fee. Tickets will be shipped from Vancouver in January 2010 to the recipient via secured common carrier that will require a signature upon receipt.

Will Call: Tickets will be available for collection at the CoSport Will Call office in Vancouver from Feb. 1, 2010, to Feb. 28, 2010. The Account Holder will not be allowed to nominate a proxy to pick up tickets on his/her behalf and must collect the tickets under the account in person.

NOTE: Aside from vancouver2010.com or Jet Set Sports/CoSport any individual or group claiming to sell 2010 Olympic Winter Games tickets within the United States is making that claim falsely. Buyers should be aware that tickets bought
